It was a dark night, and the weather was _____. Peter was on his way home from a birthday party. Suddenly, he saw a beautiful young woman next to the road in the rain. He stopped his car and asked: "What are you doing here alone?" The woman answered: "I went for a walk in the forest, but I lost my way! Can you take me home? I live in the house at the lake with my father." Peter drove to the lake. The woman was very tired, and when they arrived at the house, she was _____. So he walked over to the house and knocked at the door. An old man opened and asked: "What do you want here?" Peter said: "Your daughter is in my car! She lost her way in the forest, and so I took her home. She's very tired, and she is asleep." The old man looked at Peter and shouted: "What are you talking about? My daughter is dead! She _____ two years ago! A rattlesnake killed her!" – "But... she... is in the car," Peter tried to say. The old man looked very angry and closed the door. Peter was _____ and went back to his car. But the young woman was _____. Peter looked around, and suddenly, he saw a rattlesnake crawling away to the lake.
