

SOME or ANY

1. Can I have _____ milk, please? – I’m sorry, we haven’t got _____.
2. I need _____ money, because I want to buy _____ sweets for my little sister.
3. They found the street without _____ problems, but they had _____ difficulty finding the right number.
4. Would you like _____ ham? – No, thank you. I don’t eat _____ meat. But I would like _____ cheese, if you have _____.

_____/10

PAST SIMPLE & PROGRESSIVE:

It was six in the evening on a Friday afternoon when detective Tim Clarkson (want to) _____ leave his office. Outside, it (rain) _____ and the detective was happy that the weekend (be) _____ finally here. The detective (just close) _____ the door, when the telephone (ring) _____. “Who can that be?” the detective (think) _____ and (walk) _____ over to the phone. He (pick up) _____ and (say) _____: “Hello, this is detective Tim Clarkson, who is there?” On the other side of the line, a deep voice (answer) _____: “You are in danger! They want to kill you! Tomorrow, you will be dead.” Then, the caller (hang up) _____ the phone.

Detective Clarkson (shake) _____ his head. “What a strange caller,” he (say) _____, (go) _____ to the door and (leave) _____ the office.

When the inspector (come) _____ to his car, he (see) _____ that something was different. Someone had put a green letter on the front window of the car. The detective (take) _____ the letter and (open) _____ it. Then, suddenly, he (hear) _____ a noise behind him. He (turn) _____ around, and (see) _____ a man who (run) _____ away quickly. “I must follow him,” the detective (say) _____ and (start) _____ to run after the man.

_____/25

ADJECTIVES & ADVERBS

Read how the story goes on; fill in Adjectives or Adverbs.

The street where the man had disappeared * was (dark) _____ and the detective had to run (quick) _____. Finally, the street came to an end. Detective Clarkson looked around (careful) _____, but he couldn’t see anyone. “Where can the man be?” he wondered (nervous) _____. He was (angry) _____ because it was raining _____ (heavy) _____ and he was totally wet. Finally, the detective turned around (slow) _____ and walked back. But then he suddenly heard a (terrible) _____ scream. A woman’s voice came from a big window in a (high) _____ building. The scream was terribly (loud) _____ and the detective was a bit scared. He (quick) _____ ran to the door of the building, (careful) _____ opened it and went in (silent) _____. The corridor was (long) _____ and (dark) _____.

_____/15

Total: _____/50

disappear=verschwinden