

PASSIVE:

1. They must take back the cars, which they manufactured in Germany, because they found serious problems in the engines. They will release more details tomorrow.

2. Nobody has cracked the jackpot so far, which is why the national lottery is expecting a high rise in sales of lottery tickets.

3. The speaker announced the delay of the train over the public address system so that all the travelers on the platform could hear him.

4. The Romans built this castle, which historians call the 8th wonder of the world, more than 2000 years ago.

5. Where were you, when the burglars broke the window? Could you have stopped them if you had heard them coming?

6. They should search the missing kids. Someone might have killed them by now. Tomorrow, all the papers will be writing reports about the case.

Key: 1. The cars, which were manufactured in Germany, must be taken back because serious problems were found in the engines. More details will be released tomorrow.

2. The jackpot hasn't been cracked so far, which is why a high rise in sales of lottery tickets is being expected. 3. The delay of the train was announced over the public address system so that the speaker (he) could be heard by all the travelers on the platform. 4. This castle, which is called the 8th wonder of the world by historians, was built by the Romans more than 2000 years ago. 5. Where were you, when the window was broken by the burglars? Could they have been stopped if they had been heard coming? 6. The missing kids should be searched. They might have been killed by now. Tomorrow reports about the case will be written by all the papers.